

CALL FOR MENTAL HEALTH INNOVATION

Build the foundation for a successful health technology venture.

The Call for Innovation is an innovator's first step into Core Innovation's venture-building pathway. Through a structured one-month bootcamp, innovators gain the tools, guidance, and expert support needed to validate their opportunity, reduce risk, and build a stronger path to market in the healthcare system.

Apply Now

APPLICATIONS OPEN NOW

DEADLINE TO APPLY
OCTOBER 11, 2026

WHO SHOULD APPLY

Open to researchers, clinicians, founders, and innovators across Canada who are building a health-tech venture and meet the following criteria:

Open to Canadian and international companies

Digital Health & MedTech solutions (Class III excl.)

From proof of concept to commercially viable

Pre-revenue or early-stage

2026 FOCUS AREA

MENTAL HEALTH INNOVATION

This year, in collaboration with the Precision Child and Youth Mental Health Collaboratory at the CHEO Research Institute, we are prioritizing solutions focused on

Mental health for children, youth & families

WHAT YOU'LL LEAVE WITH

Clear understanding of your customers and their problem

Refined unique value proposition

Stress-tested business model

Identification of technical, operational, and regulatory risks

Prioritized next steps towards commercialization

PROGRAM AT A GLANCE

Program

Bootcamp

Duration

Nov 18 - Dec 16

Program Fee

$950

APPLY NOW

For more information on the
Call For Innovation →

Connect with Core Innovation →

Learn more about
PCYMH →

Learn more about
Core Innovation →